Women Of Moose Greet Official Visitor From U.S.

Hopping from state to state, province to province, all over the North American continent seems to be no problem for Mrs. Antoinette Marinello. In fact, she enjoys it.

Mrs. Marinello is in Red Deer this weekend as official visitor to the provincial annual Women of the Moose conference held in conjunction with the Alberta Loyal Order of the Moose convention meeting today through to Monday.

Mrs. Marinello, director of chapter activities for the Women of the Moose, works from the "City of Orphans", Mooseheart, Illinois, a self-contained community 52 miles south of Chicago in which live over 800 children who have either or both parents deceased. The 400-acre scholastic campus houses a post office, bank, fire department, department stores and beauty parlor as well as a Baby Village, a primary, an elementary and separate high school campuses for boys and girls. There is also a church containing individual Roman Catholic and Protestant chapels.

As promotional executive, one of only three paid jobs of the family fraternity, it is Mrs. Marinello's duty to travel to the 1,500 chapters of the Women of the Moose and their district conferences.

She has held the position for 1½ years and describes it as "wonderful!"

Her work includes writing up material to all chapters and doing all corresponding work with them, advising and educating them.

Then, during five or six months of the summer, Mrs. Marinello travels widely across the continent, attending meetings and visiting chapters. She discusses the importance of Mooseheart, the children's city sponsored by the organization, clarifies rules and regulations and defines procedures on how chapters can earn honors. She attends all sessions of the conferences, giving corrective criticisms of the chapters' organization.

"I try to go to every state and province to gain a better understanding of all problems and to meet all co-workers," she says.

Mrs. Marinello has been a member of the Women of the Moose since 1949. "They started on me right away when I was enrolled—they put me to work, and I've never stopped!"

Mrs. Marinello, virtually a bundle of energy, is no amateur when it comes to travelling. Before she joined the Moose she had toured 48 states. Now she prefers travelling by auto, already having put well over 35,000 miles on her car since January. "But I have an aversion to flying—I do that only on emergencies."

As well as being actively engaged in her work with the Women of the Moose, having served in almost every capacity including president of the national board of college of regents, she says "I've had my fingers in every pie."

Mrs. Marinello has worked with the American Legion, been on the executive of the American Cancer Society, helped with volunteer drives of the Salvation Army and worked with the United Charities.

"I enjoy doing everything — though I don't do anything really well," she exclaims. Among her other activities she lists bowling, golfing, boating, swimming and amateur choreography. And all this comes from loving people and liking to work with them.

How can she travel, sight-see, as well as work so much but still always look so fresh, relaxed and charming?

Perhaps the secret is that "I always take a hot thermos of tea with me wherever I go. I like to have it first thing in the morning."

But Mrs. Marinello's greatest attribute is "I love the history and culture of people most of all."

She is married but has no children.

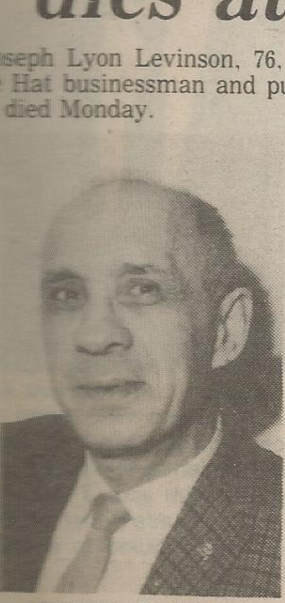
Levinson dies at 76

Joseph Lyon Levinson, 76, a former Medicine Hat businessman and public school trustee, died Monday.



JOSEPH LEVINSON

Born in Montreal in 1907, Levinson moved to Winnipeg at an early age, where he received his education.

Levinson came to Medicine Hat in 1930, where he went into business with his father, Zavel. Their fur and hide store, which they called the New York Fur Exchange, was located at 314 S. Railway St. When his father died in 1932, he took it over.

He was always active in community organizations. He founded the Rangers Athletic Club in 1932, and became a member of the Medicine Hat Loyal Order of Moose in 1938.

Levinson married Beatrice Muir in 1937. After the Second World War, he changed the emphasis of his business to a traditional men's clothing store and finally became a music dealer in the early '50s.

He remained proprietor of Levinson's Musical Instruments until 1975, when he retired and sold the business, now known as Levinson Music (1978) Ltd., to Ken Chisholm.

Chisholm recalls Levinson spent six months with him afterwards to help out, especially with ordering and financial records.

"He was an excellent businessman and friend. He always had an answer — and a good one."

Levinson was elected to the Medicine Hat public school board in 1952 and remained a member until 1968. He was board chairman in 1956 and 1959, and served as vice-chairman from 1952 to 1955 and again from 1965 to 1968.

"I always knew him as a friend of education," said Ald. Ken Sauer, public school superintendent. "He was a person who was not only a strong supporter of education in Southeastern Alberta, but also a strong student advocate on the provincial level."

He was active in the arts in the city.

Beatrice and he were members of the Medicine Hat Little Theatre, acting and helping with various productions and festivals.

ENTS.

HE IS JUST AWAY

I cannot say, and I will not say
That he is dead - he is just away!
With a cheery smile,
and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be,
since he lingers there.
So think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of there
as the love of here;
Think of him still as the same, I say:
He is not dead he is just away!
